Monarch Surveyors & Engineering Consultants Ltd. reports net profit of ₹14.3 crore on revenue of ₹73.2 crore for H1 FY26

Pune, November 10, 2025:

Monarch Surveyors and Engineering Consultants Ltd., a recently listed company on the BSE SME platform, announced its unaudited financial results for the half year ended September 30, 2025, reporting a robust performance in its first results post-listing.

The company registered revenue from operations of ₹73.19 crore and a net profit of ₹14.30 crore, reflecting strong operational efficiency and growing demand for its surveying, engineering, and consultancy services across infrastructure and industrial projects.

Total income for the period stood at ₹74.79 crore, including other income of ₹1.59 crore. The company's EBITDA margin stood at approximately 27%, underscoring effective cost management and scale efficiencies.

Key expense heads included employee benefits of ₹15.62 crore and other operating and administrative costs of ₹35.69 crore. The company maintained a healthy interest service coverage ratio of 17.93 and a debt-equity ratio of just 0.18, highlighting a strong balance sheet position.

Monarch raised ₹93.75 crore through its public issue in July 2025, primarily to fund capital expenditure and working capital requirements. Of this, ₹28 lakhs have been deployed toward machinery purchases and ₹4.40 crore toward working capital as of September 30, 2025.

Commenting on the performance, Mr. Dattatraya Mohaniraj Karpe, Managing Director, Monarch Surveyors & Engineering Consultants Ltd., said: "This half-year performance marks a confident beginning to our journey as a listed entity. The results reflect our commitment to precision, technological advancement, and disciplined execution. With the infrastructure and industrial ecosystem expanding rapidly, we are well-positioned to build on this momentum in the coming quarters."

As of September 30, 2025, Monarch's total assets stood at ₹247.4 crore and reserves of ₹195.1 crore. The company continues to focus on scaling its operations, investing in technology, and expanding its footprint across India and select international markets.
